- When you do not have enough and appropriate vocabulary, so you start feeling uncomfortable and nervous while speaking and writing.
- This lesson will provide you some tips on how to build vocabulary.

⇒ Useful Tips to Build Vocabulary:

Reading	Reading is a wonderful way to learn new words. Because reading is a one-person activity.
Listening 1	Listening is how we first learn words as a child. Music is a fun way to learn new words while immersing yourself in the popular culture of English-speaking countries.
Listening 2	Attend events in English, like plays, sports matches, and exhibitions, to listen for new words.
Writing	Writing will help you remember whatever you study.
Movies and TV	Watching movies is a casual way to learn words. Similar to reading illustrated books, you get the perk of visual cues.
Conversing	Conversing allows you to gain valuable input on your word usage and pronunciation.
